JUDGE BELL WILL ADDRESS
SUNDAY EVE CONGREGATION

At the regular Congregational evening services Sunday at 7:30, Judge John C. Bell will address the congregation, using for his topic, Mrs. Elsie Lincoln Benedict, the famous Montrose girl who is internationally known as a wonderful speaker and a woman of keen insight.

During a recent visit to the Pacific coast Judge and Mrs. Bell had the pleasing opportunity of hearing Mrs. Benedict speak, and they as do everyone else who hears her, found her a most fascinating as well as a convincing speaker. Mrs. Benedict is teaching human analysis, taking up the development of man and how to avoid misfits. She speaks to vast audiences in the largest cities in the country.

This service will without doubt be of special interest here, as Mrs. Benedict spent her girlhood days here and is known to nearly all of our people. She is a sister of Mrs. J. A. Gordon of this city.
